

forthwith cause the names appearing upon said ballot as drawn, together with the names selected as grand jurors, to be duly recorded in a proper book in the order in which they shall have been chosen, and in which said judge or judges shall have seen them drawn as aforesaid, which said judge or judges so attending said drawing shall certify at the foot of said list to have been done.

1882, ch. 67. 1884, ch. 450.

587. The twenty-five names first drawn from said drawing wheel, as so caused to be recorded by the said judge or judges, shall constitute and be the jurors for the superior court of Baltimore city for the three weeks to ensue after the commencement of the next term of said court.

Ibid

588. The twenty-five names drawn next in order as aforesaid, as so caused to be recorded by the said judge or judges, shall constitute and be the jurors for the criminal court of Baltimore for the three weeks to ensue after the commencement of the next term of said court.

Ibid.

589. The twenty-five names drawn next in order as aforesaid, as so caused to be recorded by the said judge or judges, shall constitute and be the jurors for the Baltimore city court for the three weeks to ensue after the commencement of the next term of said court.

Ibid.

590. The twenty-five names drawn next in order as aforesaid, as so caused to be recorded by the said judge or judges, shall constitute and be the jurors for the court of common pleas for the three weeks to ensue after the commencement of the next term of said court.

Ibid.

591. After four hundred of the names in the box shall have been drawn, as provided by section 586, it shall be the duty of said judge or judges who shall have attended said drawing to cause the names of the said several panel, and the names of the other persons drawn as aforesaid, to be entered in two books, in addition to the book provided in section 586, in the order in